When Should You Book Costco Travel?

1. Book Early to Secure Better Rates

📞1-855-452-1936 As with most travel agencies, booking early is often the best way to lock in lower prices. Costco Travel allows you to book vacation packages, cruises, and hotels months in advance. Booking well ahead of your travel dates (around 4 to 6 months in advance) will typically yield the best pricing for flights, accommodations, and car rentals.

Booking in advance also gives you more options when it comes to availability, especially during peak travel seasons.

2. Avoid Peak Seasons for More Affordable Prices

📞 1-855-452-1936 Traveling during peak season—like summer, spring break, or the holidays—can significantly increase the cost of your vacation. Flights, hotel stays, and even cruises become more expensive due to increased demand. If you have the flexibility, try to plan your trip during off-peak seasons (such as late fall or early spring).

These seasons are not only less expensive but also provide a more relaxed travel experience with fewer crowds and shorter lines at attractions.

3. Look for Last-Minute Deals

📞 1-855-452-1936 While early booking is ideal for many travelers, there are also significant opportunities with last-minute deals. Costco Travel sometimes offers steep discounts as your travel dates approach, especially for cruises or vacation packages where bookings may be lower than expected. If you're flexible with your travel dates and destination, you can often find great deals up until a few weeks before your departure.

However, last-minute deals can be a gamble, so this option is best for those with flexible schedules who are willing to take a chance.

4. Monitor Holiday Promotions and Sales

📞 1-855-452-1936 Certain times of the year, like Black Friday, Cyber Monday, and holiday sales, can bring special Costco Travel promotions that offer additional savings or exclusive packages. These promotions are often announced well in advance, so you can plan accordingly to take advantage of these discounts.

Keep in mind that many Costco members receive early notifications of these sales, so it's worth keeping an eye on your email or Costco Travel's website during these peak sales periods.
